

Domestic waste separation

Packaging of:

Other:

Coloured and clear glass	Paper and cardboard	Metal	Plastics and composites	Ollie the oilpal	Biowaste	Problem waste	Bulky refuse	Residual waste

Goes with coloured or clear glass	Goes with paper or cardboard	Goes with metal	Goes with plastics and composites	Goes with Ollie	Goes with biowaste	Goes with problem waste	Goes with bulky refuse	Goes with residual waste
Hollow glass containers such as bottles, phials, jars, bottles for cosmetics, glasses (no crystal glass) Make sure you do not throw away returnable bottles, they can be refilled!	Paper: newspapers, magazines, brochures, mail circulars, copy-books, books, writing paper, catalogues, window envelopes, paperbags, uncoated and cleaned paper Cardboards (please fold them): boxes, corrugated cardboard, cardboards, bags for cement etc.	Cans of tinplate, beverage cans, food cans, aluminium foil, caps, not dropping paints and varnish cans, empty spray cans	Plastic foils, vacuum packages, packages for beverages, coffee, frozen food, composites packages (milk), blister packs (tablets and polystyrene), cleaned containers for household cleaning products and cosmetics, polystyrene (separated collection preferable)	Cooking fat and oil used (deep) frying oil/fat, oil from marinated food, spoiled and expired cooking oil/fat, butter and lard	Fruit and vegetable trimmings, spoiled food and leftovers, eggshells, coffee grounds, filter, tea-bags, cut flowers, wood-wool, garden waste	Residual oil, batteries, fluorescent tubes, thinners, nitro-enamel dilution, cosmetics, paints and varnishes, mercury, disinfectants, photo-chemicals, medicines, acids, alkalis Cooking fat and oil (separated collection of used cooling fat preferable)	Domestic waste that does not fit the residual waste bin / bag because of its size / form, furniture, carpets, sports goods, skis, baby buggies  Wood scraps and scrap iron (separated collection of used cooling fat preferable)	Waste which is not recyclable: Broken crockery and ceramics, stubs and ashes, dust bags, tooth brushes, coat-hangers, tights, disposable nappies, hygienic articles, toys, bulbs
Does not go with coloured or clear glass	Does not go with paper or cardboard	Does not go with metal	Does not go with plastic or composites	Does not go with Ollie the oilpal	Does not go with biowaste	Does not go with problem waste	Does not go with bulky refuse	Does not go with residual waste
Capsules and caps, crockery, ceramics, window glass, plate glass, wired glass, glassware, bulbs	Packages for frozen food (coated), carbon paper, cellophane, wallpaper, packages for beverages, hygienic paper	Composites, spray cans and cartridges etc. with residues, pots, pans, broken household appliances, tools etc.	Waste which is not part of packages, e.g. toys, tooth brushes, coat-hangers, tights, flower pots	Mineral oil, motor oil and grease, other liquids and chemicals, mayonnaise, sauces and dressings, other waste	Synthetic cat litter, dust-bags, disposable nappies, butts, ashes, problem waste, residual waste	Cleaned and not dropping containers of paints, varnishes, household cleaning products etc., they are recyclable	Residual waste, problem waste, construction waste, oil radiators (contain problem waste)  Refrigerators (Disposal fees)	Waste which can be recycled! I.e. reusable materials, packaging, biowaste